A new year is born every September. The summer sand is washed away and books become a way of life. The pigskin is dusted off and the school is alive with the excitement of a new beginning. As Floridians we miss seeing the change of the seasons, but we still feel their impressions.

Spirited Ram team battled to a rebuilding season despite 3-7 season

A fine and determined Ram team took the field this season

For the first time since 1965, they established a balanced running and passing attack

Those who emerged as team leaders were senior quarterback Steve Vallone, senior tackle Gary Rodney, senior halfback Ray Feraco, senior fullback Mike Cauley, and junior tight-end Barry Smith

Barry Smith was Dade County's leading pass receiver with 33 receptions for 608 yards and 5 TD's

Smith was also voted to the Miami Herald's All-City offensive team

Performances of such juniors as Barry Smith, Jim Blystone, Tommy Carlsen, and sophomores George Aradi and Mike Fronk give much hope for next season

Tough breaks didn't make any difference as Rams worked hard despite losses

The 1967 football season was far from discouraging, though it might appear that way

Frustration appeared to throw the Rams for losses as they came close to winning

This year's Rams were a hustling, scrambling team and they turned in many brilliant, though losing, efforts

Sheer guts enabled them to defeat a strong South Dade team and Mays' Rams in upset victories

Determination led them to stop the running attack of Hialeah and go on to shut out the Thoroughbreds, 20-0

The spirit, fight, and team effort by this season's team will be remembered long after scores have been forgotten

Winter

With winter the newness wears off and studying sets in. It's the faculty's time of year. It may never end, but there is the feeling throughout the school that progress is being made. The cold weather brings out mesh stockings to go with not so "mini" skirts.

Returning swimmers help team to a top place in Dade County competition

This year's Ram swimming team had a tough assignment—surpass the 1967 teams which set 64 new school records, the boys setting 30 and the girls setting 34

The 1967 boys team had a 10-2 record and the girls finished 11-1 and second in the State Championships

Janis Lewis, Diane Kisida, and Debi Green were selected as All-American Swimmers this year

Co-captains for the 1968 team were for the boys, Eddie Danker and Andy Parrott; for the girls, Janis Lewis and Sharon Sonchik

Scoring at meets is based on individual and team performance in various swimming skills, and on time in distance races such as the 200-yard medley relay

The swim team was coached by Mr. Dan Cavanaugh and daily practices were held at the YMHA pool

Summer

At last it's summer! The impressions change again. Now it's the outdoors and the glorious Miami sunshine. Graduation finalizes three years of studying. For some it's work and marriage. For others it's just a prelude for more school, but for the underclasses, it's just a break between sessions. One third of Coral Park's family scatters with only the yearbook to bring back memories.
